Mr. Nelson

Pursuant to our telephone conversation of March 20th, attached is the verification you requested from my client indicating that they did not export any SLABs in 2012. It is my understanding based on our discussion, that because my client did not export any SLABs in 2012, and have provided verification of that, they do not have any further reporting requirements to the EPA at this time. If this is not correct, please advise immediately.

Thank You,

Robert L. Stefani, Esq.
